Customised Property Copywriting

BeWrite Real-Estate Copywriting Services are experts in content writing for the effective marketing of residential and commercial properties. Don't settle for poor quality copy that fails to present your property in the best light.

BeWrite can customise a copywriting solution to suit your marketing needs with copy that delivers the right message and highlights your property perfectly.

Fixed Price Services or Customised Options

BeWrite copywriters will ensure the words used to present each listed property are accurate, clearly focused and designed to get results. All work is guaranteed for delivery within a 48 hour turn-around (or less) from either site visit completion, or receipt of required images and information from the listing agent.

"Starr Partners Merrylands, Pemulwuy and Wentworthville have a very high turnover of properties each month. Therefore, we have a huge need for copywriting of the highest standard to be delivered on time. BeWrite are experienced writers for our local market with the depth and resources to deliver written copy and other marketing support at short notice as needed. Their staff also attend our weekly property van to inspect and experience each property for themselves. This process has enabled BeWrite to effectively become part of our team while giving their writers a great feeling for what the sales people and vendors want to say about each property. The results have been outstanding with the added benefit of freeing our sales team from ad writing so they can focus on listing and selling property. BeWrite now assist our agency with much of our vendor and agency marketing when needed. I'd recommend Bevan and the BeWrite team to any high performing real estate agency." Phillip Starr, Director, Starr Partners.

“It was a very simple and stress free process. I sent him the property photography and the main points we needed to include, he made a call to our vendor (as directed by me) to discuss the important features with her, and less than 24 hours later he sent me the complete copy for Internet, print advertising, brochures, editorials. I simply passed it to the sales support staff to implement. It was so simple and easy, freeing up my time for the important things a Real Estate Agent should be doing which are listing, selling and negotiating. I'm delighted with the BeWrite Real Estate copywriting service. We will definitely use your services again in the future.” Tina O'Connor, Licensed Real Estate Agent Raine & Horne Annandale.

Feature Example

32 Allen Street, Leichhardt

Absolutely Brilliant Rare Offering

It's rare to see a brand new home in the Leichhardt area, so when one is built to exacting standards of quality and excellence, it really stands out from the crowd. Luxurious style and premium designer elegance sums up this sensational three bedroom, Torrens titled duplex where no expense has been spared in its design and construction. "It's been a long time since we've seen anything like this in the area," said Tom Pistevos, principal of Ray White Leichhardt. "The owner / builder is a fastidious man who only appreciates the best of everything. He's imported materials and technology from all over the world to create something absolutely special. I love showing this property as there is so much to talk about."

The very long list of features includes premium design open-plan gas kitchen with Siemens stainless steel appliances and imported Stone Italia benchtops, multiple living spaces including study, reading room, media room, family room and alfresco dining areas, marble flooring downstairs, spotted gum timber flooring upstairs, three designer bathrooms with Caesarstone bench tops and a main bath boasting a German infrared panel heating system, ducted air conditioning, ducted vacuum and secure off-street parking for two cars. "Some of the additional unique features of this home are a 3 Dimensional feature wall in the family room, LED lighting controls, European floor and wall tiling, Trimless downlights, Bosch alarm system, audio and visual intercom and auto-entry security gate on a traditional cobblestone driveway. The inclusion list is just incredible and reflects the specific attention to detail shown by the builder and designer," said Tom.

The private entrance gateway takes you across imported Terrazzo stepping stones through to landscaped gardens, a private in-ground swimming pool with Modwood decking and separate self-contained Cabana with its own bathroom which would suit a variety of uses including first-rate home office, teen retreat or in-law sleep-out accommodation.

This home is perfectly situated only metres from the ritzy cafes and restaurants of Norton street and around the corner from Leichhardt Marketplace, making it perfect in every respect and a true one-of-a-kind for Leichhardt. The additional self-contained, 1 bedroom Servants/Gardeners residence boasts combined lounge and dining area, covered patio overlooking the rear paddocks, fully equipped kitchen and bedroom with built in robes.

- * 3 bedrooms plus study and media room
- * 3 designer bathrooms
- * Premium gas kitchen with Stone Italia Benchtops
- * Separate Cabana/Home Office/Sleep-Out
- * In-ground swimming pool, landscaped gardens
- * Walk to Norton Street cafes and Leichhardt Marketplace.

Real Estate Copy Writing

Weekly Caravan / Van Attendance

Does your agency do a weekly inspection of all the new listings with your Real Estate sales people in attendance?

If you do, then having your professional real estate property copywriter in attendance at each property as part of this process (and a key part of the team) is a real advantage. A property copywriter can visit each newly listed property and get the important points and facets directly from the property and the listing agent.

This will ensure perfect property copy is delivered each time. Having an additional team member on-site to perform property copywriting also reflects well on your agency when vendors see that you are serious about effectively marketing their property.

Pricing from only $100 per property for weekly van attendance, with written property copy (for all properties visited that week) typically delivered within 48 hours of van completion.

All copy guaranteed with unlimited re-writes until your property is sold!

Property Copywriting Pricing Summary

Type	Price (Ex GST)	On-Site Attendance
Standard Property Copywriting	$140.00	Both Onsite and Offsite available
Feature Editorial	$220.00	Onsite only
Weekly Van Attendance	On Request	Onsite only

Make your property listings the best they can be.

*“We used to write our own copy, but found the process took the focus away from our sales reps with them wasting too much time on advertising writing, rather than property sales. Bevan and the BeWrite team write consistent and powerful copy that is perfect for our local market and gives our ads the best chance to sell. There is never an issue with re-writing or changing content to match our needs. Having someone else we can trust to do the job right every time means that the whole sales team now has more time and energy to stay focussed on what matters most to us, property sales.” Matt Carpenter, Associate Director, Starr Partners Pemulwuy.

About BeWrite

BeWrite have been providing high-quality and high-value copywriting to Real-Estate Agencies since 2005. Bevan Rigato started the business with one focus, and that was to help businesses get great writing so they could stay focused on doing the things that their business is great at.

Great written copy isn't just a series of well structured words, it's about organising those words to fit specific business needs and getting that writing just right for your business purpose to achieve excellent results.

BeWrite copywriters are highly experienced and able to quickly understand your writing needs. When you work with BeWrite, you'll be working with copywriters who understand Real Estate and deliver the perfect copywriting solution to exceed your business goals.
